

Introducing iPhone 3G S

The fastest, most powerful iPhone yet

We've just received an overnight batch of iPhone 3G S handsets and we'd like you to be one of the first to know. It's all very hush hush, so if you want to be one of the lucky few to get your hands on one, we suggest you keep this news under wraps.

The iPhone 3G S is truly an amazing device. It's a vast improvement on the already great iPhone 3G. With features like video capture, video editing and a nifty 3 megapixel camera, you'll never miss a memorable moment again. That's not all. The iPhone 3GS has introduced cut, copy and paste functionality that allows you to copy and paste just about anything across applications. Spotlight search, voice commands and digital compass are all added features that make the new iPhone 3G S really special.

Go on, visit Suretel to get your hands on the super speedy, impressively powerful iPhone 3G S. For more on its features visit us.

The Cineclub Komba Kanema is back at Theatre Scala, in Maputo. On the 5th of August we will have our Lambda session with the film Plata Quemada, by Marcelo Piñeyro, 125 min., 2000. Plata quemada (English: Burnt Money) 2000) is an Argentine French, Spanish and Uruguayan film directed by Marcelo Pinevro, and written by Piñeyro and Marcelo Figueras. The film won, among other awards, the Gova Awards for Best Spanish Language Foreign Film in 2001. The picture stars Eduardo Noriega, Leonardo Sbaraglia, Pablo Echarri, Leticia Bredice, Ricardo Bartis, Hector Alterio, and others. It is based on Ricardo Piglia's 1997 Planeta prize-winning novel of the same name (but translated into English as Burnt Money) that was inspired by a true story of a famous bank robbery in Buenos Aires in 1965. The film, a recreation of their now-legendary story, is an action thriller of the exploits and red-hot passion of two thugs. The work was partly funded by INCAA. For those who did miss or want to check again, we are partnering with INAC, and showing (once more) some of the films that were presented at the 1st Mostra de Cinema e Audiovisual da CPLP. For September we'll host Dockanema, as usual. Program will be available soon... For more info contact: Cineclub Komba Kanema [komba.kanema@gmail.com]

mcel Golf Workshop / 17 - 30 August 2009 / Maputo Golf Course

Richard Lyon

A Double-A. Class member of the Professional Golfers Association of South Africa, Richard Lyon has had a lifelong association with the game of golf, starting more than 60 years ago in the UK.

Besides being a fully-qualified and highly regarded coach, both of beginners and elite players, Richard is also one of Africa's leading senior players. His record includes a victory in the 2006 SA Senior Tour Championship, sponsored by International accounting firm Deloitte, as well as a runner-up spot in the 2003 Cadillac Cup and the 2002 Vodacom Senior Players Championship.

A former Chairperson of the South African Senior Tour, he is also a certified R&A Rules Official, having qualified in 2005.

Besides helping run the Ladies & Legends Tour in Southern Africa, he also lectures MBA students at the Wits Business School on Stress Management, Ethics and the Rules of Golf & Business.

Tania Lyon

A tennis player in her youth, Tania had never been on a golf course when she met her husband in 1996. However, from that day tennis took a back seat and she now plays golf off a 5 handicap.

A qualified R&A Rules official (she attained distinction status in the 2007 exams), she is the Tour Director of the Ladies & Legends Tour, which has been running in Southern Africa for eight years and has recently expanded by adding the Future Legends, a section for young professionals who have not yet qualified to play on the Sunshine Tour.

With several club championships on her record, Tania is actively engaged in coaching.

Xiluva Restaurant : Once upon a time in war-torn Maputo the only place to get a decent Chicken was at the Piri-Piri restaurant on the corner of 24th of July and Julius Nyerere. But the days of their hegemony are now well and truly over. Their overpriced and sometimes overcooked chickens have lost their flair. Instead, if you're looking for a really succulent chicken at rock-bottom prices and the best chips in town then head out to Xiluva in the Feira Popular on Avenida 25 de Setembro. One proviso though - phone and order your chicken before hand (Cel 82-3923070), as good food takes time to prepare!

The owner, Mr Daude, is a grey-haired gentleman who offers a sense of Mozambican hospitality to his humble restaurant. It is a small down to earth oasis in the Feira, and is frequented by company directors and lawyers and Mozambicans in the know, as well as a few intrepid tourists who happen to stumble on this little gem. You won't find many of his customers spreading the word of this great little place, for the jealousy of knowing a truly great place is too strong. You have to be a true friend to be invited there! Well, I believe that more people should frequent this place and enjoy the fantastic and intriguing food, but when I told Mr Daude that I would do this, it was on the condition that there is a table always available for me! So if you get there and it's full but for one table.. you know why.

Daude has worked in most of the big restaurants in Maputo, from when it was still known as Lourenço Marques, serving tables and then working as a cook. So he's had all the experience necessary in making sure you get good food and quickly. However he has opted to open a low-key small kitchen that caters to some unusual foods with unique sauces.. From 'pescadinha' (whitebait) to grilled crab, prawns and onto succulent chicken, his menu is short but to the point. We are still trying to get the secret ingredient out of his grilled crabs, but to no avail. No problem, we couldn't cook them as well as he does anyway, so it's back to his place whenever we want crab. And what about the chicken, which is what started me out on this discourse.. Well, here again there is a special sauce. The chicken comes out of the kitchen hot but succulent, covered in nice thinly cut but crispy chips. A side order of salad with tomatoes and onions is also present, and the very fresh bread that accompanies the meal works well to mop up all the stray juices. Sounds pretty basic? Well, try it once and you'll be back for more!

So, why do you have to phone in advance? Because Mr Daude's small kitchen means that he has to get his good in fresh every day, especially the fish and crustaceans. Also good food takes time, and I assure you it is well worth it.

Beer on tap is ready to quench your thirst, but if you prefer he has a few bottles of choice wine behind the counter. Instead of a battery of waiters that you get in other restaurants (where you have to wait for YOUR waiter to place an order or get service), he has one waitress who manages all the tables. Miraculously, it all works and the watchful eye of Daude means that you don't have to ask for a refill of your beer, and food is promptly delivered. One proviso - make sure you don't have important meetings scheduled after lunch! Enjoy.

Directions: Enter the feira at the Escorpiao entrance and go straight for about 100m until you get to the Police station on your right. The restaurant is on the left and set back slightly from the road. Capacity is about 9 tables, but BOOK YOUR FOOD IN ADVANCE and you have a pleasant experience.

To try – grilled crab, grilled chicken, pescadinha (whitebait), beer on tap. Also does take-aways.

About the Author – Mario Traversi has lived in Maputo since 1992, and probably tried most of the restaurants in the city. Few really stand out. Xiluva is on the top of his list though.

Pro Consumers are organizing a workshop for the new Consumer Regulations.. The workshop will take place in Maputo on 27 and 28 August at the TDM conference centre. For more information Contact: Te: 82 8320610 or email proconsum@hotmail.com
