Position: Program Management Office Coordinator
Reports to: Program Operations Director
Location: Maputo, Mozambique

About IRD:
Founded in 1998, International Relief & Development (IRD) is a United States based charitable, non-profit, non-governmen tal organization. IRD is one of the premier organizations implementing development services and programs across a broad spectrum of regions and technical activities. Our mission is to reduce the suffering of the world’s most vulnerable groups and to provide tools and resources needed to increase their self-sufficiency. We accomplish this mission by running targeted, cost-effective development programs that improve the lives of these vulnerable groups. We work in regions of the world that present social, political, and technical challenges, and particularly specialize in helping communities affected by conflict and war to recover and improve.

IRD has been working in Mozambique since 2004 on water, sanitation, and hygiene (WASH), HIV/AIDS, malaria prevention, and women’s entrepreneur programs. In addition to a national office in Maputo, IRD has six offices in Inhambane, Sofala, and Zambezia Provinces with more than 170 people on staff.

Position Summary:
The Program Management Office (PMO) Coordinator is responsible for the monitoring of the PMO systems, and providing administrative support to the Program Operations Director.

Essential Job Functions:
• In close coordination with the field Program Managers (PM), compile project reports; check for quality and completeness and the accuracy of the milestone table
• Under the direction of the Program Director develop and maintain reporting spreadsheets to be used by the PMs
• Maintain the donor reporting schedule and track donor reporting progress with the PMs; alert the Program Operations
  Director of possible delays in reports
• Maintain target achievement whiteboard by summarizing information from various reports
• Ensure all reports, agreements and budgets are organized in the data files
• Ensure that PMs have received critical communications
• Update Standard Operating Procedures under the direction of the Program Operations Director
• Ensure Program Procurement Plans are updated, and track progress with Procurement Department, keeping Filed Offices informed of progress and delays • Assist the Program Operations Director in identifying operations bottlenecks and perform duties as assigned to resolve bottlenecks
• Assist Program Operations Director with administrative and financial support needs
• Attend stakeholder meetings and represent IRD as required
• Prepare briefing packages for meetings and visits for the Program Operations Director
• Produce and maintain personnel documents in support of Field Office HR staff

Required Skills & Experience:
• Bachelor’s degree with 5 years of experience performing similar work, including project monitoring and reporting, data analysis and assessment
• Fluency in English and Portuguese
• Advanced knowledge of Microsoft Office Suite

Success Factors:
• Energetic and willingness to learn; positive attitude with the desire to solve problems.
• Ability to work with a team; strong communication skills

Interested candidates should send their detailed CV’s and updated in Portuguese and English, to: dhelmey@irdglobal.org  and  rnovele@irdglobal.org (closing date: May 29, 2013).

Bom Dia Inhambane (2012) More at IMDbPro »Documentary film about the music scene around Mozambique’s province-capital of Inhambane. The Austrian musician Roland Pickl is running the small recording studio Bom Dia where he produces and records local bands and music projects. Together with his friend the Mozambican rapper and musician Helio D., he takes us to numerous musicians of the area. At spontaneous jam sessions, rehearsals and organized concerts an extremely vivid music culture is presented. Written by: Jarosch, Daniel
